Dear friend,

Thank you for downloading this report. My job is to make sure that it is of value to you. Not just any value, but tremendous, life-altering value. I'm not going to fill you with fluffy promises and lofty dreams. I will show you, in no uncertain terms, how to finally get the Law Of Attraction to work for you – consistently – every single day - for the rest of your life.

In this report, you will learn:

- Why movies like “The Secret” have made no real difference in your life – and how to turn that around, once and for all.
- Why self-improvement programs haven't worked for you – yet.
- Why the Law Of Attraction is working against you – right now, and how to get it back on your side – permanently.
- The REAL reason for the current Economic Recession, and how to be unaffected by it – today.
- How to reprogram your belief-system to your specifications – automatically – permanently, manifesting more abundance, joy, success, happiness and freedom than you can ever imagine...

Those are some pretty big promises, but don't worry, you are in good hands – I will come through on every promise.

Let's get started by talking about ...

THE LAW OF ATTRACTION

Worldwide interest for the Law Of Attraction exploded after the release of the international hit movie The Secret™ in 2006. After the film's release, the book The Law Of Attraction by Esther and Jerry Hicks (on which The Secret was partially based), made the New York Times Best Sellers list, drawing even more attention and interest to the Law Of Attraction.

Larry King and Ellen DeGeneres both featured the Law Of Attraction on their respective shows and Oprah Winfrey began a series of interviews on her show on the Law Of Attraction, chronicling the astoundingly positive changes this law can make when understood and used correctly.

As you may know by now, the Law Of Attraction is a universal law that works on this simple principle: Like attracts like - what you focus on expands. If you put a lot of focus on something you want, you'll attract it. If you put a lot of focus on something you do NOT want (like being broke), you will attract it.

Another way of saying it is this:

“If deep down you feel good about something you want, you will get it.”

“If deep down you feel bad about something you do not want, you will get it.”

Like the Law Of Gravity, the Law Of Attraction is a non-discriminating law.

“Like attracts like – where focus goes, energy flows.”

Let me make an important distinction here – the Law Of Attraction does not actually respond to your thoughts per se – it responds to how you feel about your thoughts.

Pay attention - it's crucial that you get this!

In other words, you can think about it, wish for it, pray for it and visualize receiving a million dollars till you're blue in the face, but if deep inside (even at a subconscious level), your true feelings are that you don't really believe that it'll happen – it won't happen.

Because, again, the Law Of Attraction always delivers the perfect match to how you truly feel – not your thoughts. More on this in a bit.

Millions of people around the world started practicing the principles of this law. You'd hear about the most successful ones in the media; about how they created riches, love, peace, freedom and the life of their dreams simply by taking advantage of the principles of this universal law.

But somehow, this just doesn't happen for most people.

...which brings me to my next topic...

THE LOA IS WORKING AGAINST YOU – RIGHT NOW!

Let's get real for a moment – unless you're living the life of your dreams right now – unless you're living in your dream home, driving your dream car, have your dream mate and enjoy outrageous levels of personal freedom, peace and self-expression (in which case you wouldn't be reading this in the first place), guess what?

“The Law Of Attraction is working against you – right now.”

You've watched the movies, you've read the books, you've visualized, focused on things you want, written your gratitude lists countless times, maybe even tried a “secret behind The Secret” program or two, but still nothing.

Oh sure, you may have had a temporary boost in consciousness which made a few good things happen, but it wasn't permanent.

Why?

Because again, The Law Of Attraction does not discriminate – it simply responds to how you really feel.

It does this by delivering a perfect vibrational match to your feelings. This means that if you do not feel wonderful most of the time, the Law Of Attraction will deliver things/people/experiences that makes you feel – not wonderful - most of the time.

I CAN EASILY SHOW YOU HOW TO CHANGE THAT

One of my favorite quotes is an old Chinese proverb you may be familiar with. It goes something like this:

"Give a man a fish and you'll feed him for a day.

”Teach a man to fish and he'll have food for the rest of his life.”

My point is that I could give you "free fish" in the form of the most powerful, life-changing LOA techniques I know right now, but it wouldn't make a difference.

Why?

...because if it did, you'd already have the Law Of Attraction working for you right now, by using techniques from movies like The Secret.

I'm sure you've already tried it - feeling grateful, visualizing, focusing on good things and so on. I don't think I'm going out on a limb by saying that, at best, it made a difference in your life for about a week or two - maybe even a month.

Then, somehow, everything returned to normal, and you asked yourself...

“Why isn't this working?”

Or, perhaps you've been doing this longer, and you're now at the point where you recognize that the one obstacle always standing between you and your dreams is...you.

Regardless of which category you fall into, aren't you sick and tired of this struggle? Haven't you had enough of seeing others manifest their dreams while you're still spinning your wheels?

Regardless how much you've struggled, you must have done something right, because the Law Of Attraction brought you this book.

Why is this important?

Because if you act on the information in this book, your number one stumbling-block - your "unknown factor" - the one reason you aren't living the life of your dreams; YOU - will have an ally on your side that will change everything.

This ally will be your own personal genie – much like the genie in the story of Aladdin. You will have direct access to it in the same way Aladdin did.

On days when you're feeling down, it will help you reprogram your belief-system - literally reprogramming your mind - to your specifications!

On days when you feel like a million bucks (and with this ally, those days will start occurring more and more frequently), it will increase your positive energy in ways you can't even imagine.

It will literally teach you how to fish, so you'll have food for the rest of your life - the rest of an extraordinary life.

No, this is not a science fiction fantasy - this is real!

This technology exists today (unbeknownst to most people) and due to the power of the Law Of Attraction, you have been put in the extraordinary position of being able to tap into it.

This technology - this ally, with the power to consistently override the negative programming in your subconscious mind (and that's just from one of its many applications) is called Attractor Genie.

But before I tell you more about it, it's important that you understand a few other principles.

One thing that makes it hard for a lot of people to take advantage of the Law Of Attraction these days, is the current economic recession, so I'm going to let you in on a little secret by explaining...

The REAL reason for the current Economic Recession

And how to be completely unaffected by it

Every day when I get up, along with my coffee and toast, I like to watch the morning news. Or I should say I used to like watching the morning news. These days, I can't seem to watch it for more than 20 minutes or so before they go into "recession mode".

Every day – several times per day, they are obsessing about this. They have daily "experts" who give advice on how the average Joe can take measures to "stay afloat in these trying and difficult times".

They feature interviews with "affected citizens" who complain about the current price of food, gas and just about everything else, followed by the two news anchors looking at each other with sad faces, heads shaking, asking us to "hang in there even though things are tough right now."

GIVE ME A FRIGGING BREAK!

Do you want to know why we're having a recession? I mean, why we're really having an economic recession?

BECAUSE EVERYONE IS FOCUSING ON IT!!

You see, the Law Of Attraction doesn't just work on a personal level. It works on every level: personal, communal, societal, national, global and cosmic. What you focus on expands – on all levels.

Whenever groups of people go into agreement about something, it creates a very powerful – sometimes even devastating effect – courtesy of the Law Of Attraction.

The economic recession is a perfect example. It starts with something like one person (or a group of people) doing something that causes another person to think “that’s not good”. This person shares this with another person who does the same with yet another person – and if what they’re thinking matches the current general state of consciousness, more and more people latch on to it.

...and the Law Of Attraction responds by manifesting more of the same

The cycle continues to gain momentum like this until the Law Of Attraction starts manifesting this collection of thoughts into physical things and occurrences (chains of events leading to high prices, etc). When that happens, we call it “proof”. Once we have this “proof” we watch the news, we complain about it and we discuss it.

...and the Law Of Attraction responds by manifesting more of the same

This goes on until you have a complete breakdown of the economy.

That continues until someone says, “it’s got to get better soon” to someone else. That makes this someone else feel good, so he/she shares this opinion with others, who share it with others again. What they’re thinking matches the current general state of consciousness really well, because people are tired of hard times, so more and more people latch on to this thought.

This conversation is now starting to make a lot of people feel really hopeful. As a matter of fact, the local news stations are picking up on it now - people are starting to expect good changes to come.

...and the Law Of Attraction responds by manifesting more of the same

Because of the collective momentum, physical manifestation (“proof”) is now happening left and right, causing everyone to talk about how good times are coming.

...and the Law Of Attraction responds by manifesting more of the same

...until we no longer have an economic recession. Of course, at that point, we have plenty of “proof” that shows us that we got out of the recession because X and Y happened. You know – “proof”.

DO YOU SEE HOW ABSOLUTELY INSANE THIS IS?!?

Look, I know this tangent was long, but it was for a very good reason. I wanted you to once and for all stop being affected by this giant illusion called the recession. Or anything else negative you hear about from anyone – anywhere. Anytime.

These are the fundamentals of the Law Of Attraction. You always and only get what you expect deep down. The more you dwell upon the things you do not want, the more you bring those things into your life.

If at some point you find yourself “sucked in” by negative outside influences again, remember this: unless you have a deep-rooted belief somewhere that is vibrating perfectly with society's current obsession with recession (or anything else) – you cannot be affected.

The problem is that, often, you do have these subconscious beliefs and you do get sucked in.

But don't worry – we're going to handle all of that by the end of this e-book – courtesy of Attractor Genie. But before that, we have more important ground to cover.

Why other self help PROGRAMS HAVE failed YOU?!?

Let's get back to what I was saying earlier. I mentioned that the reason most LOA methods, and techniques aren't working is because The Law Of Attraction does not discriminate – it simply responds to how you really feel – not how you think. It delivers a perfect vibrational match to your emotions.

So again, unless you consistently feel good, you will not consistently create good things in your life – no matter how many self-help books or programs you try.

Let's go even deeper...

Do you want to know the core reason why these self help books do not work? It's the same reason why you don't consistently feel wonderful – why your life isn't as successful as you want it to be. It's why you keep bumping up against that wall, no matter how hard you try to break through to the other side. Here's why:

Because you are not consistent

The missing ingredient to having the life of your dreams is taking consistent and inspired action. It's that simple.

How much money have you spent on self-improvement books/programs? $50? $500? $5000? Regardless how much, notice how you're still not where you want to be in life.

This is because your success is never dependent on the actual self-improvement materials themselves - they have no power in and of themselves. Sure, they may have brilliant information that would alter your life forever if you applied it to your life – consistently – as in every single day, week after week, month after month. But therein lies the problem.

I can't tell you specifically why you have difficulties staying consistent, but as a general statement, I can tell you with 100% certainty that your core issue is subconscious counter-intentions. Intentions that you are completely unaware of.

This is why you are floating adrift in a sea of self-help programs, books, movies, techniques and methods without land in sight.

So you see, you can continue this journey if you like – buying the next “life-changing” program, and the next, and the one after that. But nothing will change, because books or methods won't change your subconscious programming. It is, again, changed by one thing and one thing alone:

Taking inspired and consistent action

One of my favorite movies is the documentary “What the bleep do we know?” In this film, quantum physicists illustrate the fact that every time you change a thought pattern, your brain's neurons start re-arranging themselves. They further explain that if you keep this change consistent, your brain neurons will completely rebuild their net to support that change – until the changed behavior becomes second nature.

You may have heard that it takes something like 30 days to establish a new habit. Now you know why. It's not just a "mind thing", it's actually physical.

Do you get the significance of this?

This means that if you can stay consistent – consistent no matter what – your brain will do the dirty work for you! Your brain neurons will literally cause your counter-intentive subconscious programming to shut down, in submission to your new, chosen programming.

The only catch is...

You cannot do this on your own!

I say that confidently, because if you could, you'd already done it. If you think reading this book will inspire you to give it another go, I'm sorry to tell you that it doesn't work that way.

Why?

Because that is your conscious mind talking.

Your counter-intentive subconscious is a hundred (if not a thousand) times more powerful than your conscious mind and it doesn't want you to succeed - period. If it did, you'd be successful a long time ago. But that's not the case. It's a vicious cycle and very few people in this world ever break out of it.

Look, I'm not saying this to bum you out. I'm saying it because I have been there. For decades, I struggled with the same thing – taking consistent and inspired action. I tried just about every self-help method you can imagine – I even hired a coach. But since I only spoke with my coach a few times per week that failed too. Because in the end, I'd always "run into myself". That is, until Attractor Genie.

“OK John, spill the beans – what is this Attractor Genie?”

Imagine having a full-time, personal genie that every day, every second, whispers life-changing affirmations in your ear so silently that you cannot hear it, but loud enough that it slowly, but surely starts triggering your brain neurons to alter, eventually completely rebuilding your belief-system from one of lack to one that you get to specify.

Whatever you want, the Genie dutifully goes to work for you.

“Your wish is my command”.

Now let's switch to real life - imagine that this Genie does exactly the same thing, as a software program on your computer. Add to this every Law Of Attraction tool you can think of, as clever, seamless applications. Program it easily and quickly, set it to run on automatic and go about your work day as you normally do while the Genie goes to work for you – rebuilding your belief-system – little by little, until your life in the not-quite-there lane is but a distant memory.

That is Attractor Genie in a nutshell.

Attractor Genie is the worlds first Law Of Attraction Software.

It is a complete personal development solution that turns one of the most important, but drab, repetitive techniques required to make the LOA work for you, into an automated task.

It is the one tool on the market that is capable of doing what no other self-help program, seminar or coaching can even dream of doing - namely altering your subconscious belief system to your specifications, until taking inspired and consistent action becomes second nature to you. All this while you're working on your computer – or even surfing the Internet!

Remember, if you can only do that one little thing – take consistent and inspired action, the world becomes your playground – the kind of world you always knew existed, but never dared dream would come true. That's the power of Attractor Genie.

You never have to worry about the one thing that makes most people hesitant about buying other self-help programs – you never have to worry that you won't end up using it.

Let's say you're a chronic procrastinator. You have enough never-used, dusted down self-help books on your shelf to start your own desert. Great!

So you get Attractor Genie. Just from the sheer excitement of receiving the software, you'll spend at least a few minutes on it. That's all the time it takes to do the basic setup. You set it to autopilot and let it do its thing. You don't worry about all the other applications for now – first you need to reprogram your belief-system, so you'll actually have the discipline to do this work in the first place.

You let it run non-stop on your computer, and within less than a week, you start noticing subtle, positive changes. You're starting to feel encouraged.

This is not an unrealistic scenario at all with Attractor Genie. As a matter of fact, it's commonplace. The type of intention you set the software for will determine what kind of changes you'll get in your life.

When I started my own personal development journey, my issue was lack of money, so I set the program for “abundance”. I can't recall exactly, but I know it didn't take more than 5-6 days before I started noticing weird “coincidences”. New opportunities started coming in. My online business, which I had been struggling with for years, somehow started making money. And I found myself feeling good more and more of the time!

That was quite some time ago, with a rudimentary version of the more powerful Attractor Genie that's available today. Today, I am happier with myself and my life than I have ever been before – I'm thrilled with my financial situation and I love my life!

Thanks to Attractor Genie and the deep, profound changes it has triggered, I've become someone people look up to for the way I live my life – someone who lives life like it's supposed to be lived - like a big, fun adventure.

“I completely removed all my limiting beliefs - beliefs that had held me back for over 20 years!”

Attractor Genie has helped me remove most of the negative conditioning I've collected since I was...8 years old, so that I now enjoy life almost as vividly and vivaciously as I did back then!

From the bottom of my heart I want you to experience this for yourself!

I want you to experience – maybe for the first time in your life - the exhilarating feeling and satisfaction you will get from consistently manifesting what you want in your life.

I want you to feel what it's like to wake up in the morning with a big smile on your face, because you're living life on your terms – you're doing what you want, when you want to do it – every day.

But more than anything, I want you to feel the tremendous relief of not having to struggle anymore. Life should not be about struggle. And now, thanks to Attractor Genie, it doesn't have to anymore – not for you.

The world needs to experience the unstoppable, powerful, abundant, free and peaceful you. Don't cheat the world out of that contribution any longer. Let that wonderful light of yours out – at last.

That being said, I warmly invite you to get the process started - get acquainted with Attractor Genie right now.

Don't wait another second – because a second is all that your counter-intuitive subconscious needs to talk you out of this.

My friend, the struggle is about to end – here's to your new life!
